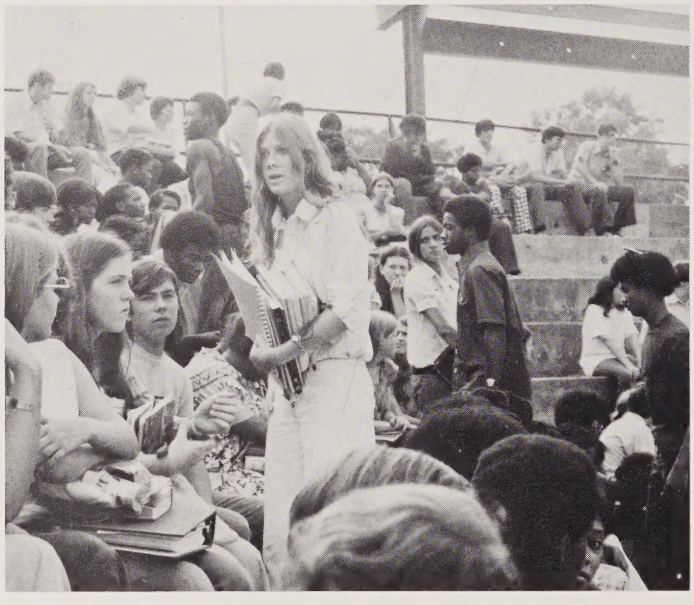
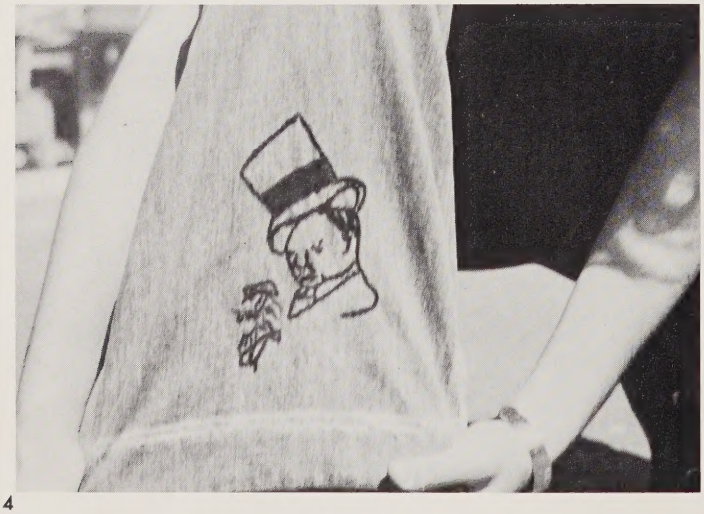
In years to come, as we look back, what will we remember? Will we remember the year as it was or as we wished it to be? Will we remember the happy times or the disappointments we shared?

We may ask, "Did I express myself to the fullest extent, or did I let others express my opinions for me?"





Did we try to form lasting friendships with others, or will the experiences we shared end when the book is closed?

The others move aside to let the star through.

Although there's no business like show business, Alice Regan and Brian Hargrove appear to be giving it the cold shoulder.

A taste of broadway comes to Tarboro Senior High School. The standing ovations, two night runs, and outbursts of talent stunned everyone. "Annie Get Your Gun" was certainly a hit.

Amy Vick thinks she's the star!

Charles Teal bends down to get a closer look at Joy Hinsley's legs.

Kay Spain wonders where Pat Register thinks she's going.

Alice gets ready to show Bill Barbe she's the best in a shooting match.

Alice wants to get "in the know."

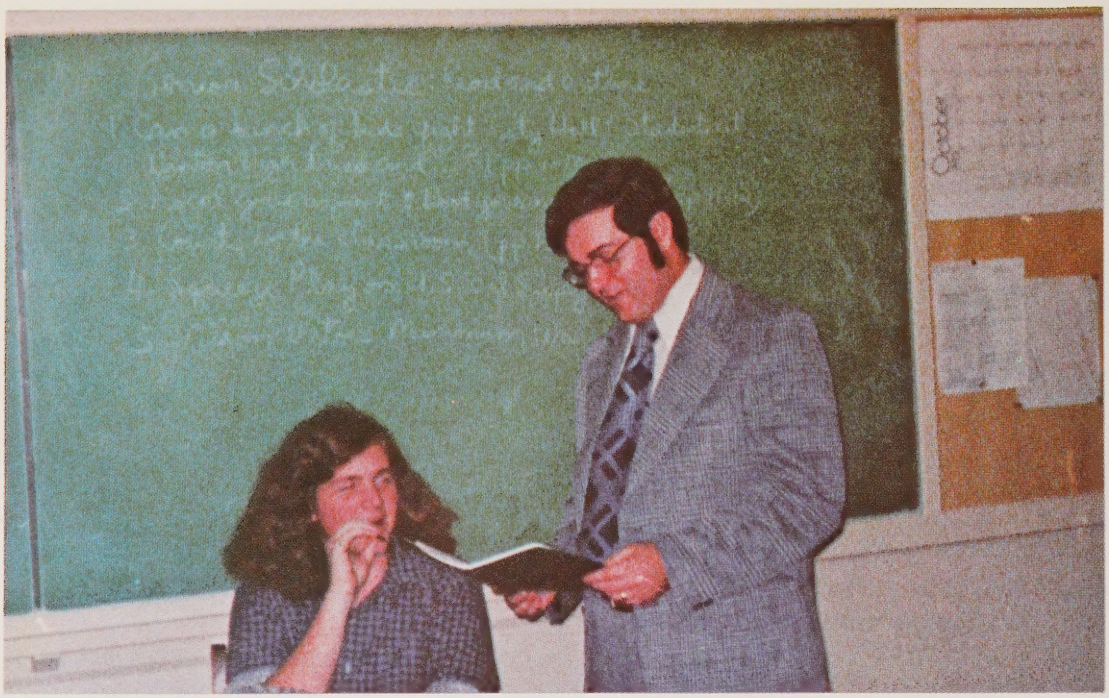
ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

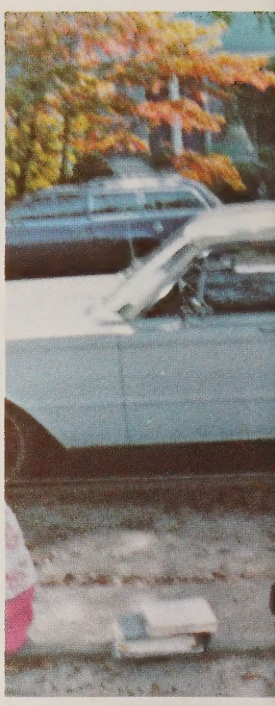
April 30, May 1, 1973

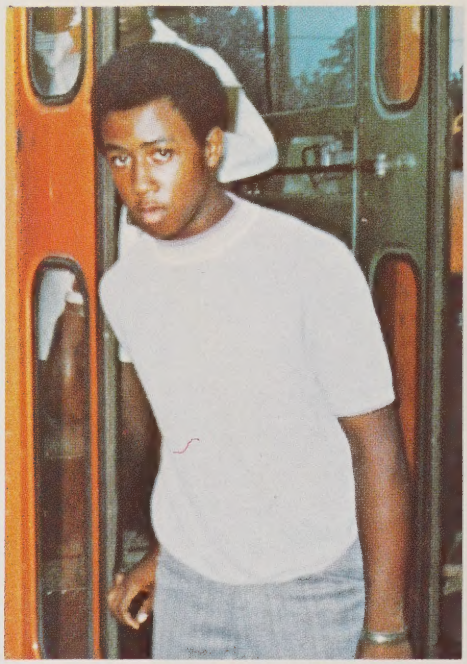
Billie Barnhill begs to keep her lovely locks.

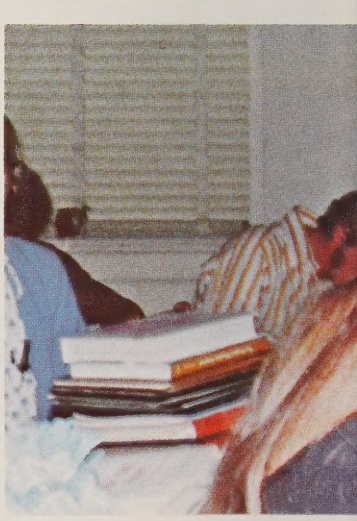
The stars take a bow - Alice hopes she won't get pricked by the roses or pinched by Bill.

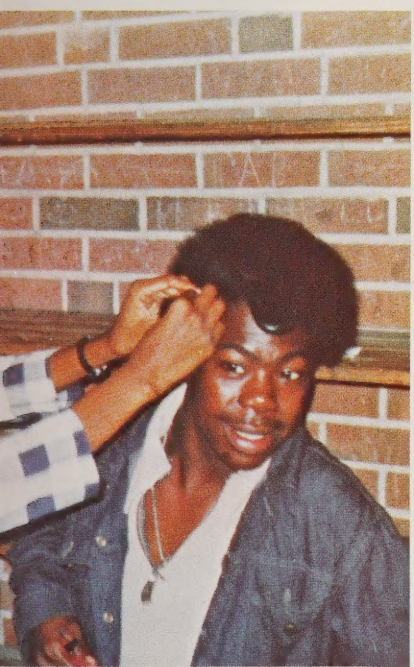
The cast is glad the finale has arrived.

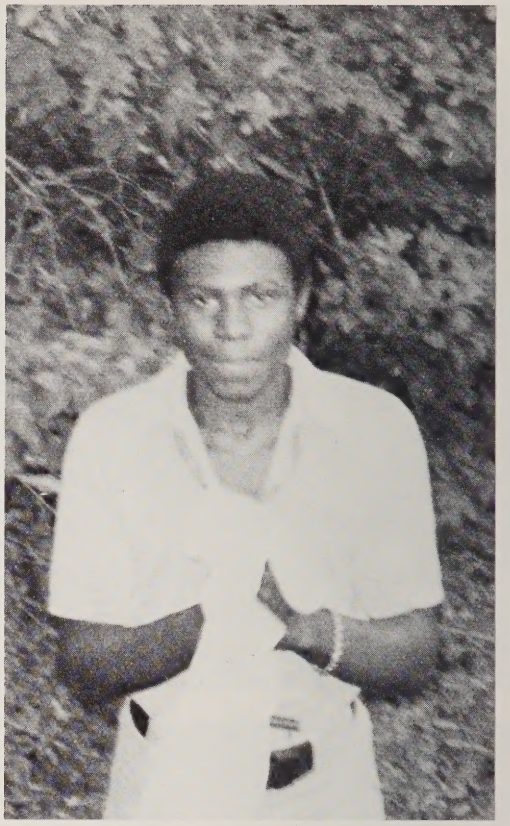




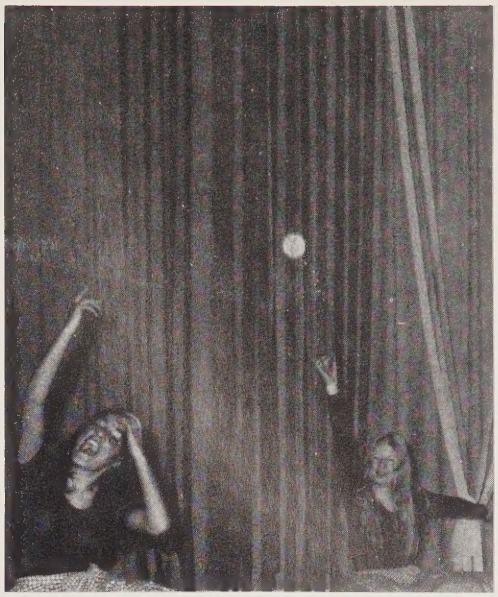


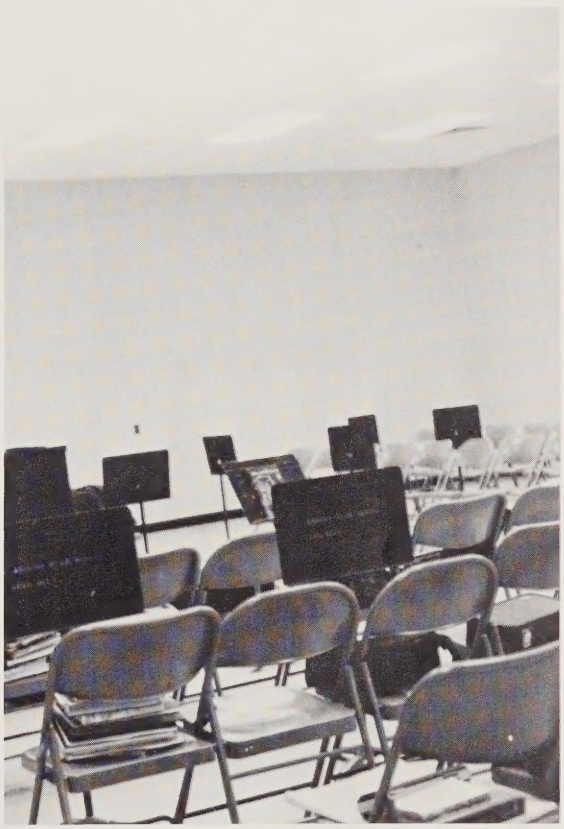


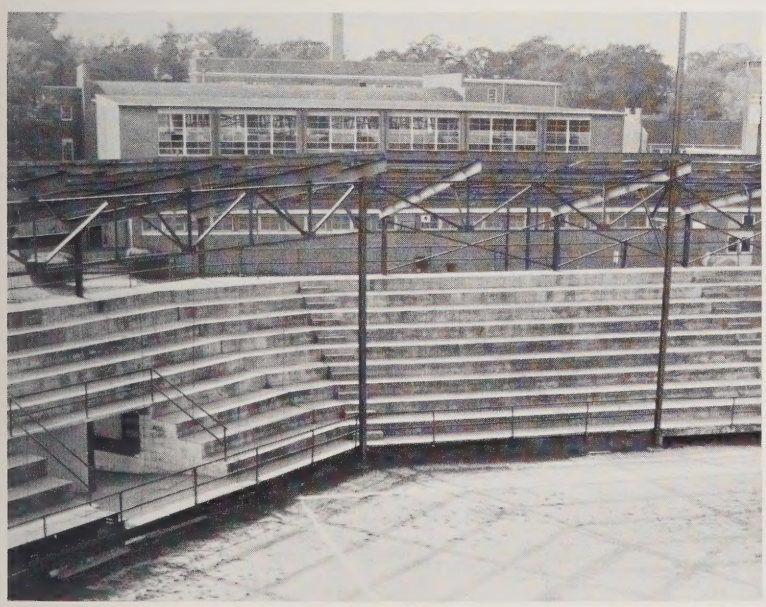




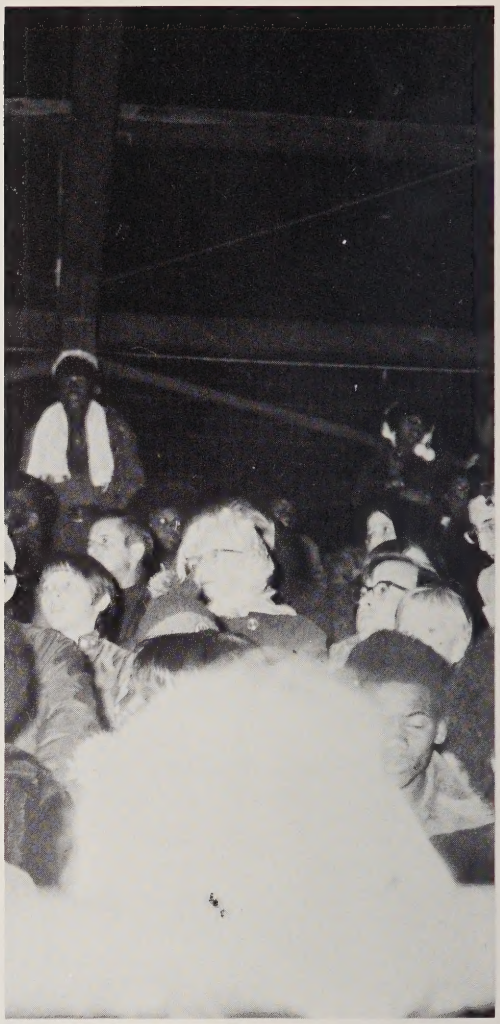
The present cannot exist forever. Our concern should be with tomorrow. Only our thoughts can live for brief nostalgic moments.







Will our memories hold empty rooms when we are on our sentimental journeys, or will we remember the smiling faces, bitter tears, and joking comments? When we ask, "Was my time spent wisely," what will we answer?



Dedication

The 1973-74 TAR-BO-RAH is dedicated to a warm person and fine educator. She not only teaches the student, but she also initiates the student's eagerness to learn new and fascinating things. She holds every student's respect. Interested in all student activities, she proudly displays her school spirit by attending every football game at home.

As a teacher, this educator cares about the students and wants to know their opinions. She listens with an open mind and tries to understand the pupil as a person. She teaches the student that English can be applied in every field. Though her contact with students is limited, others hear and know of the challenging and innovative activities in her classroom.

MRS. MARGARET RUFFIN'S warmth, kindness, and love will be deeply missed when she retires this year. A person much revered by her students, Mrs. Ruffin has given her students many gifts of knowledge they will always remember. She is first and foremost a "real" teacher.

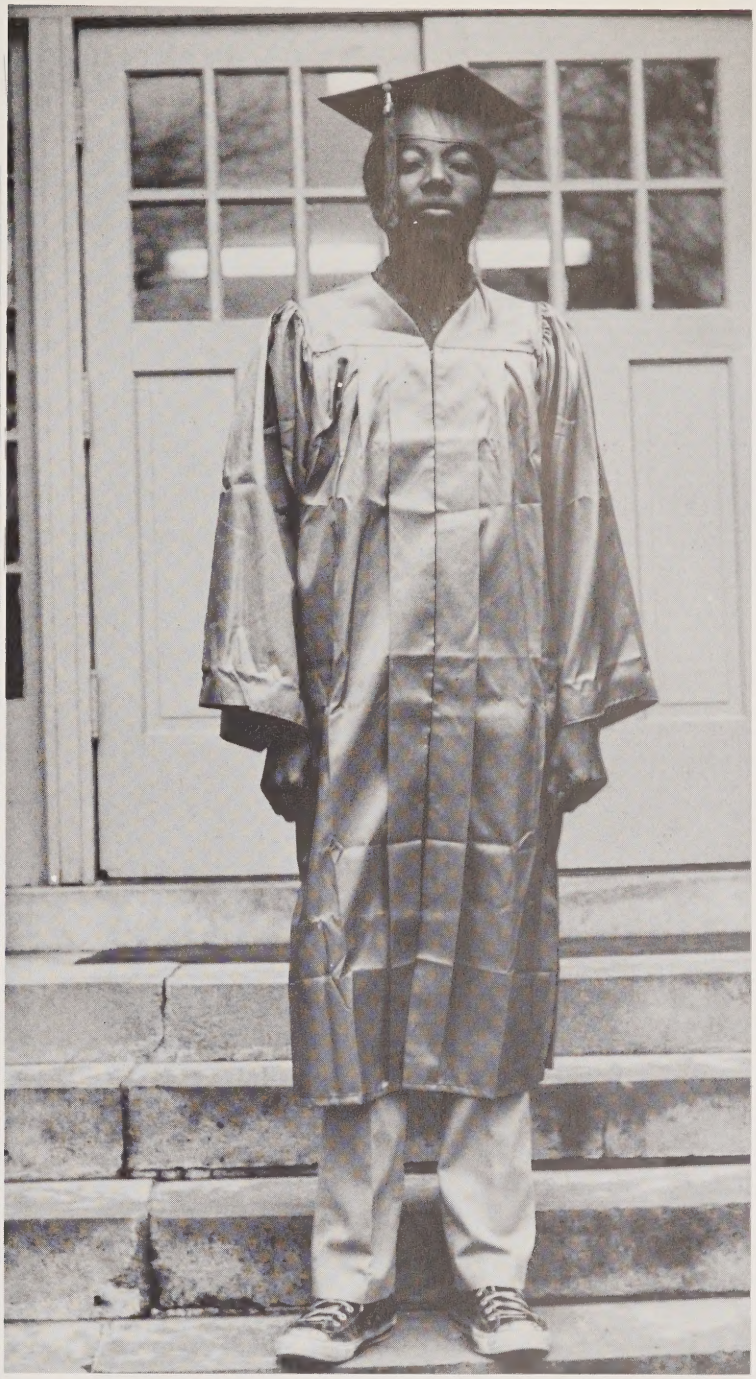
Seniors



This is not the end,
It is not even the beginning of the end.
It is rather the end of the beginning.
— Winston Churchill

Outstanding Seniors

Ernest Carlton Braswell, Jr.

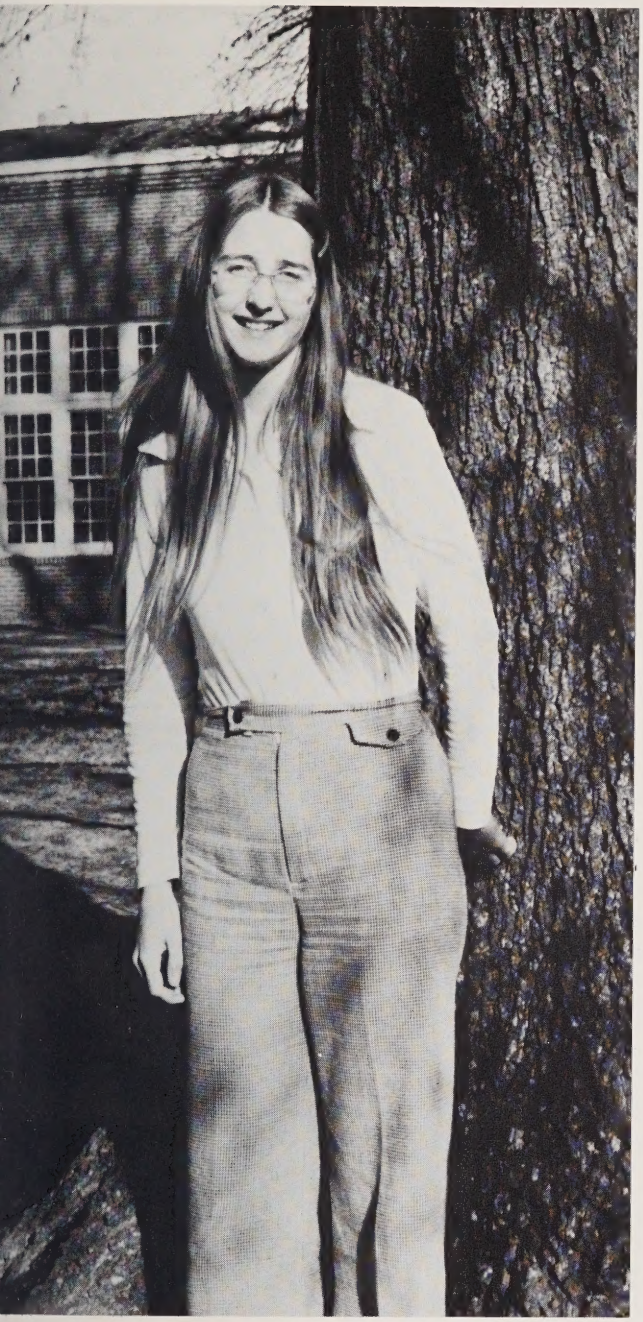
Ernest has displayed his talent magnificently in the field of art. Through his leadership as president of D.E.C.A. and his classroom participation, Ernest has shown excellence in many areas. His varied talents have been cultivated through hard work and discipline.

David Lemay Coats

Through his participation in sports, David is well known at TSH. He has also been active as a member of the N.H.S. and several other clubs. In the fall, David will go to N.C. State University where he will major in engineering.

To endure is greater than to dare;

Outstanding Seniors



Daphne Adair Hamm

Daphne's dependability has made her a leader in many aspects. She has been very involved in the activities of her school and community. In the fall, Daphne will attend N.C. State University and seek a major in horticulture.

Alton Dale Hardy

Quiet and rather reserved, Dale is noted for his ability to listen to both sides of an issue before voicing an opinion. Dale is an exceptionally good student and plans to attend U.N.C. at Chapel Hill where he will be majoring in some field of science.

to tire out hostile fortune;

Outstanding Seniors

Carolyn Faye Harrison

A thoughtful expression is characteristic of Carolyn. Quietly she sits observing the people and institutions around her. Her thoughtfulness, perception, and hard work will help her achieve her ambition of majoring in child psychology at U.N.C. at Chapel Hill.

Lisa Katherine Hux

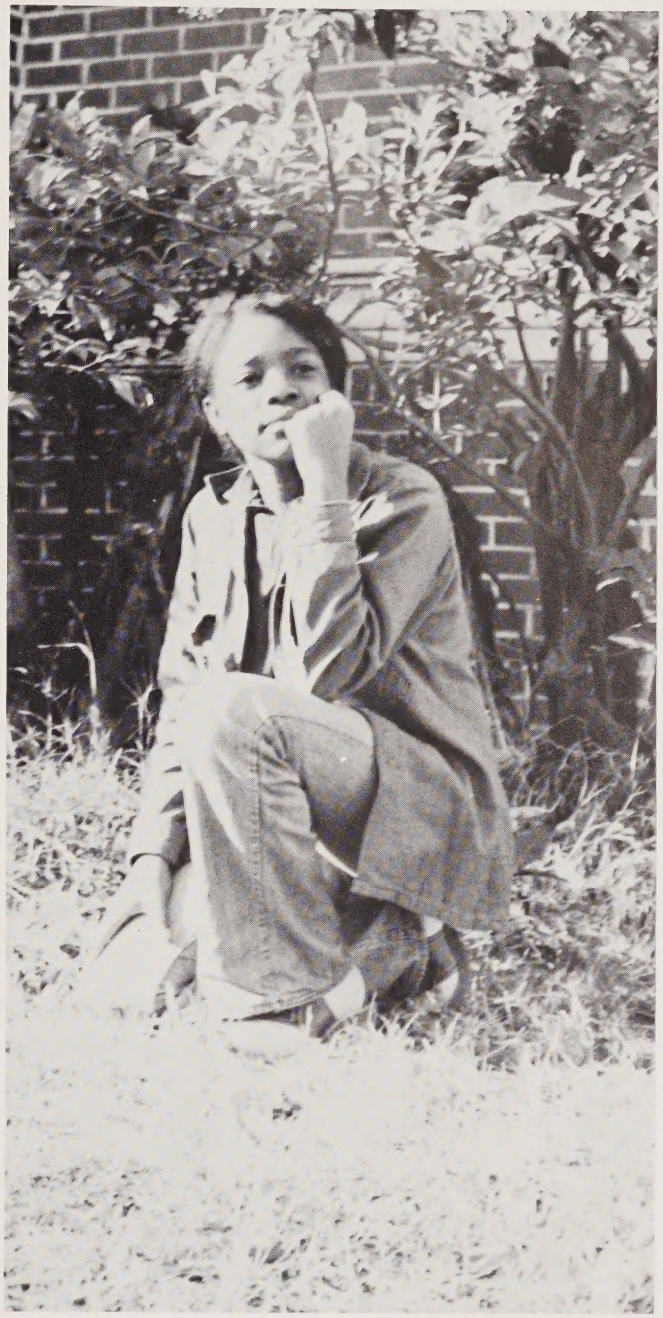
Lisa is an energetic and active member of the senior class. Her unique personality and sense of humor have entertained all the people around her. In furthering her education, Lisa will attend St. Mary's College in Raleigh.

to be daunted by no difficulty;

Outstanding Seniors

Troy Michael Lathan

Troy has a soft-spoken voice which has inspired many students. As a senior class co-president, he has displayed his great concern for his school and fellow students. Troy hopes to attend N.C. State University and major in computer science.



Linda Parker

Linda is a very talented and well liked young lady. Her outstanding personality, comforting smile, and even disposition have been the keys to her popularity. In the future, Linda plans to go to Hampton University in Virginia.

to keep heart when all have lost it;

Outstanding Seniors

Celia Pistolis

Celia's strong will and openness have earned her the admiration of many. Her leadership qualities are evident in her intense involvement in any activity she undertakes. After graduation, Celia plans to pursue a career in journalism or law.

Jacqueline Patricia Riley

As a member of the Ensemble, Jackie has shown her superb musical abilities. She has also displayed her abilities in academics as a N.H.S. member. In furthering her talents, Jackie will attend Meredith College and major in music.

to forgo even ambition when the end is gained —

Outstanding Seniors

Carter Ray Suggs

Carter is a student of whom TSH can be very proud. Through his outstanding accomplishments in the field of track, Carter has won world-wide fame. Track will obviously be an important factor in the future of this talented young man.

Winnie Pearl Denise Taylor

When in need of pep, students of TSH look to Winnie. Her spirit is exemplified by her enthusiasm as a student and a unique individual. Following graduation, Winnie hopes to attend A & T University where she plans to major in early childhood development.

— Who can say this is not greatness?

Student Life

There are places I remember,
All my life though some have changed
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone and some remain . . .

Mrs. Ruffin: "How many more questions, Lisa?"

"I bought this shirt in New York City."

Winnie: "Let me pose first!"

Now, if we could run the school, everything would work out right.

"I dare any of you to take my man!"

Jimmy: "You come first, Elaine, after me."

That's NOT dirt on my pants!"

"We're helping to contribute to the paper shortage."

. . . All these places have their moments.
With lovers and friends I still can recall;
Some are dead, and some are living.
In my life, I've loved them all.

The Vikings ended the 1973 season with a 1-9 record. The team was forced to rely on unexperienced juniors and sophomores and consisted of only a few seniors. They faced more experienced and much bigger teams. Next year, however, the Vikings will be more experienced and should give a much better showing.

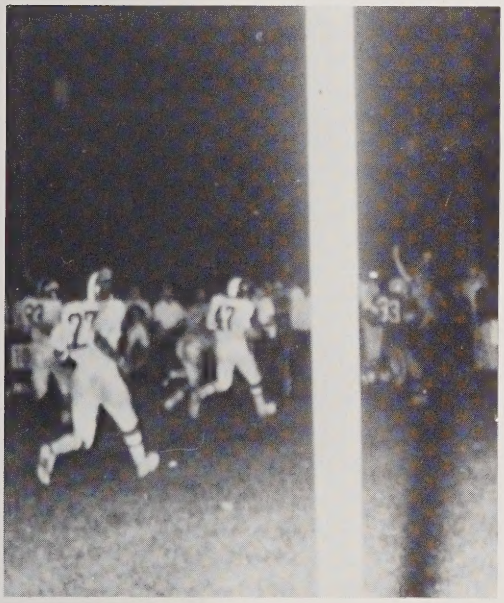
It's kick-off time for the Vikings!

Kenneth Joyner picks up yards on a sweep.



A touchdown gives Tarboro the momentum of the game.

Viking defenders throw the opponent for a loss.

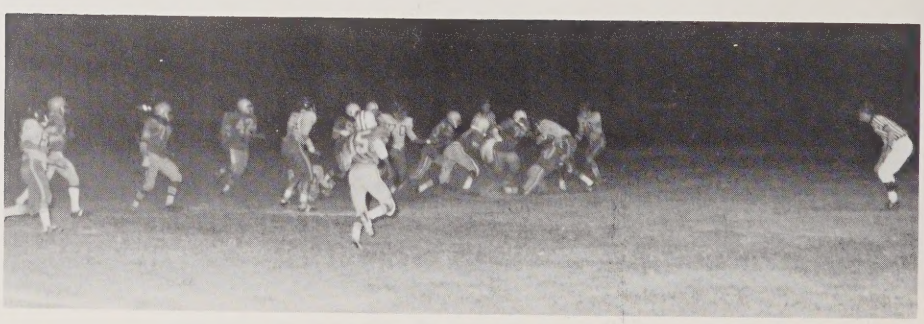
A Tarboro runner breaks through the line for big yardage.

A Viking back rips off yardage up the middle.

Joseph Jones rambles around the end.

Who's got the ball?

Viking offense is in high gear!



The Viking defense at its best.

Basketball . . . jump ball, fouls, swish, two points . . .

Although 5-11 for the year, the Varsity basketball record certainly does not represent the spirit of the team. Sporadic shooting and numerous turn-overs hurt the Vikings in several instances. However, the Vikings never gave up. This "never-say-die" attitude is a great representation of our team as well as the school.

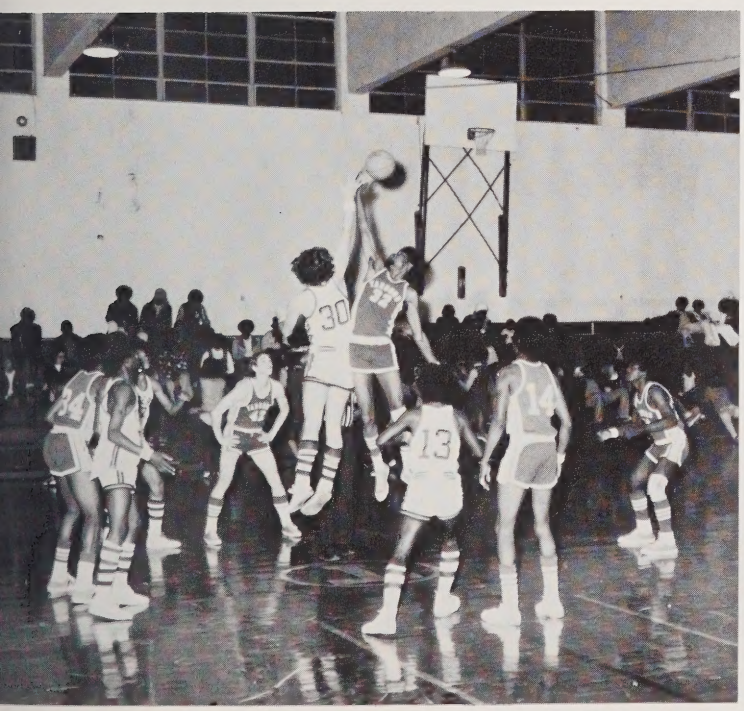
Seniors

Morris Vines, Wilbur Draughn

Cullen Johnson, Larry Modlin

Tyrone Whichard puts in two.

Morris Vines watches as Tyrone grabs a rebound.



Jump ball!

The Vikings "flip" over Wilbur Draughn's hot shooting.

Wilbur drives for two more points.

The Vikings for a rebound.

Carolyn Harrison enjoys the surprise party which was given to honor the senior cheerleaders.

It's a tense moment as the ball hovers around the rim.

Larry Modlin, No. 24, didn't know he had that kind of shooting power!

Forrest shoots from the corner.

The referee tries to sneak into the picture.

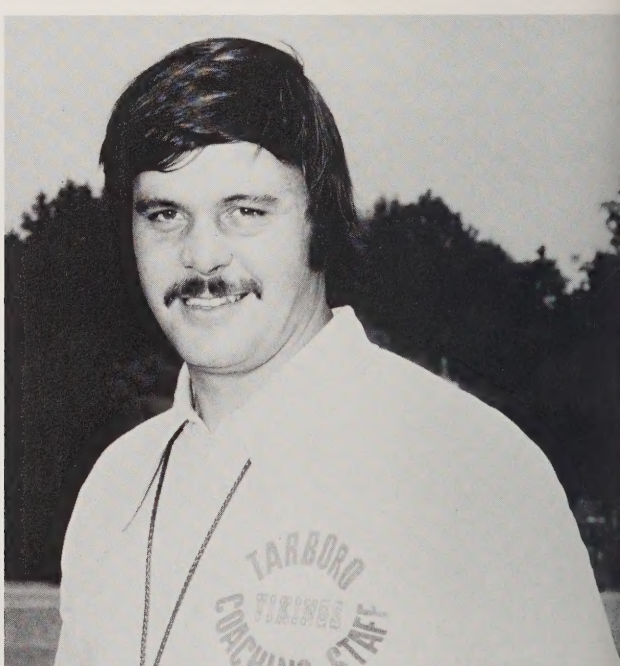
Track has come alive at T.S.H. in the past three years, and we will be able to see our super stars in action. "The depth which our team has acquired," as pointed out by Coach Brett, "has led to our success."



Coach Jim Brett

Tyrone Knight puts the shot.

Weinstein leaves his contender in the two mile.

Suggs and Howard take advantage of that second wind to cross the finish line.

Coleman Watts clears the bar in the pole vault event.

Mike Kelsh streaks to the finish in the mile.

Though 0-11 for the season, the Viking Team was plagued by inexperience, having only one letterman. This year presents a different picture because the Vikings will have six lettermen returning.

Tennis . . . racket, court, net, love, deuce, practice . . .

Coach Earl Miller

Pictured with Coach Miller are Jet Taylor and John Brooks, and standing are James Pate, Brian Hargrove, and Leo Fanny.

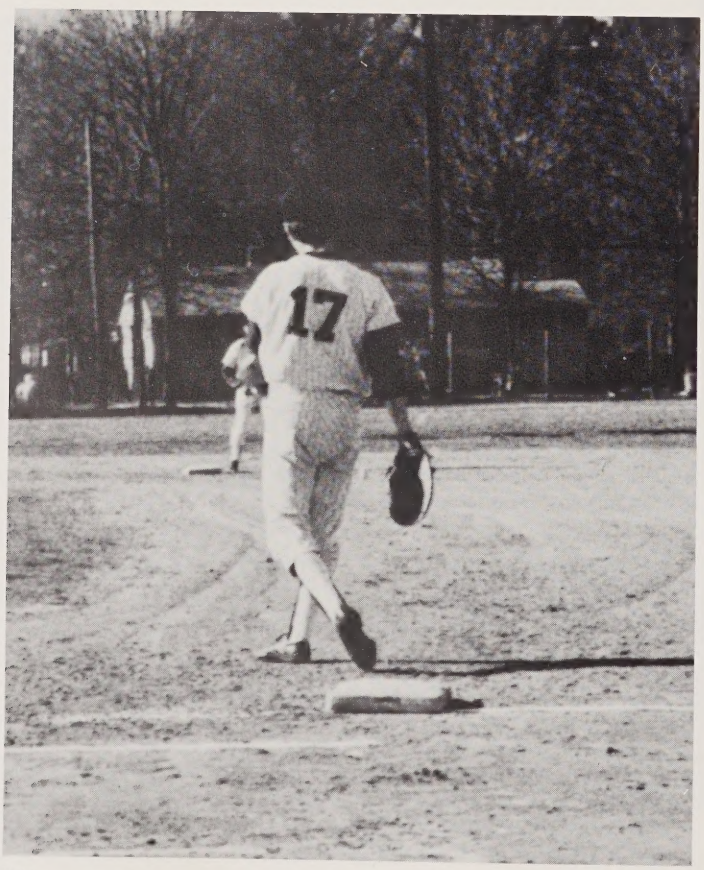
The baseball team had a frustrating and disappointing year. Losing many of their early games by only a 1 or 2 run margin, the Vikings could never seem to win the close ones. However, they came back strong to win 3 of their last 4 games. They ended the year with a 3-10 record but are expected to come back stronger in '74.

Coach Richard Scott

Baseball . . . bat, glove, fly ball, inning, catcher's mitt . . .

The Vikings trot to the dug out after a quick inning.

The Vikings take some infield practice.



Joe Brewer hustles at first base.

Al Forrest hurls the ball.

The Vikings have a conference at the mound.

Mike Massey draws back to hit the ball.

Carter Suggs
All-American Sprinter

Carter Suggs is probably the greatest athlete to come from Tarboro Senior High, as well as the town of Tarboro. His selection as an All-American, his record time of 9.3 seconds in the 100-yard dash, and his participation in the Junior Olympics are just a few of his many honors. His last season as a member of the T.S.H. track team should be one of even more records and fame. Our new track facility will enable us to witness this spectacle.

Carter will be attending East Carolina University next year on a track scholarship.

Have you ever walked along a road
And looked ahead of you
To where the path turned suddenly
And was lost awhile to view?
Think of your loved one living still
Where the road goes on without end.
It is only we who cannot see
The path beyond the bend.
